DETAILED ACTION

Status of Claims

1. This action is in reply to the reply filed on August 6, 2010.
2. Claims 46-83 are currently pending and have been examined.

Information Disclosure Statement

3. The Information Disclosure Statement filed on October 22, 2010 has been considered. An initialed copy of the Form 1449 is enclosed herewith.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

5. Claims 46, 49-51, 53, 54, 60, 63-66, 68-70, 72, 75-77 and 79-81 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Boucher et al. (GB 2331602A, hereinafter referred to as "Boucher").
6. Claims 46, 60, 70, and 72: Boucher discloses the use of a system for processing data associated with a freight shipment comprising:
 - a. A rate sheet input module capable of accepting a plurality of rate sheets wherein each rate sheet specifies published freight rates and each rate sheet is associated with one of a plurality of freight carriers and is respectively structured according to one of a plurality of formats, the rate sheet input module further receiving and storing a rate sheet associated with the one of a plurality of freight carriers and structured according to one of the plurality of formats (See Reference numerals 250a-c, with corresponding detailed description);

Art Unit: 3629

b. A rate sheet analyzer module (See Librarian 220 with corresponding detailed description and Page 5 lines 21-27) adapted to interface with a template storage module storing a plurality of templates, wherein one of the plurality of templates is associated with a specific freight carrier and is structured according to said one of the plurality of formats to interpret the rate sheet, the rate sheet analyzer module selecting the one of the plurality of templates by matching the one of the plurality of freight carriers associated with the rate sheet with the specific freight carrier associated with the one of the plurality of templates (Reference numeral 240a-c with corresponding detailed description. In particular, page 20 discloses "item rating instructions, when executed, rate the item for delivery according to the appropriate business rules and carrier rate data." The "item rating instructions" in the context of Boucher's system, are understood as synonymous with carrier associated templates that interpret the carrier associated rate sheet. Fig 2 discloses that each carrier is associated with a carrier rate module that includes the item rating instructions which read the carrier associated rate data (see 240a, 244a and 250a)).

c. Rule generation module determining a freight charge associated with the freight carrier using the selected one of the plurality of templates and the rate sheet (Reference numeral 210 with corresponding detailed description).

7. Claims 49, 63, 64, and 75: See Boucher, Page 11, lines 21-23.
8. Claims 50, 51, 65, 66, 76 and 77: See Boucher Page 14 lines 8-24 as well as Page 15, lines 1-5.
9. Claims 53, 68 and 79: See Boucher Figure 2 with corresponding detailed description.
10. Claims 54, 69, 80 and 81: See Boucher Reference numeral 270 with corresponding detailed description.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

11. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

12. Claims 47, 52, 55-58, 61, 67, 71, 73, 78, 82 and 83 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Boucher in view of Kulik (5,661,653).
13. Claim 47, 61 and 73: Boucher discloses the use of rate sheets and templates which are associated with a particular carrier, however fails to disclose the specifics of the rate sheet and what format it is in, such as a spreadsheet format. Kulik discloses the use of a rate sheet for a particular carrier and shows it in spreadsheet format (See Columns 7 and 8). It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify Boucher to have the rate sheet in specific formats such as a spreadsheet as disclosed by Kulik, in order to have the rate data organized in a specific way.
14. Claims 52, 67 and 78: Kulik discloses the user can define such things as class, and weight, in a template for determining the rate (column 6, lines 20-40, Tables 1-3). The examiner considers this to be a keyword that signifies the type of data (i.e. class or weight).
15. Claims 55-58: See Danford-Klein, Table 1, Columns 17-19.
16. Claims 59, 71, 82 and 83: See Danford-Klein, Table 1, Columns 17-19.
17. Claims 48, 62, and 74 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Boucher and Kulik and in further view of Mattioli, Jr. et al. (6,286,009).
18. Claims 48, 62 and 74: Boucher and Kulik, as disclosed above for Claim 46, discloses the use of customized rate tables by class, but fails to disclose the rate tables including zones. It is old and well known in the art that rate calculations for shipping include such parameters as zone (for example international shipping is always higher than shipping within the United States. Mattioli shows that the zone is commonly included in a rate calculation (column 3, lines 32-52). It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made, to have the rate calculation and rate tables of Boucher, include the zone, as disclosed by Mattioli, as specified in claim 48.

Response to Arguments

19. Applicant's arguments filed August 6, 2010 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.
20. Applicant asserts that Boucher does not teach a template that is used for interpreting the rate sheet for the carrier.
21. Boucher discloses "item rating instructions, when executed, rate the item for delivery according to the appropriate business rules and carrier rate data." The Examiner maintains that Boucher's disclosure of the "item rating instructions" in the context of Boucher's system, are understood as synonymous with carrier associated templates that interpret the rate sheet for the carrier.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
